

Maintenance damage to Kottinger Creek in February of 2000

The City of Pleasanton removed five mature arroyo willows from the banks of Kottinger Creek, followed by ditching of the creek bed. Before the Friends of Kottinger Creek formed, the City had planned to remove all the willows from the creek banks.

